

European Law Days 2009 / Tage des Europäischen Rechts 2009

A Common Frame of Reference on European Administrative Procedural Law?

Optional social programme (probably covered by an extra fee):

- Wednesday evening: informal gathering
- Thursday morning: Felix-Nussbaum-Museum; Osnabrück Town Hall (the protestant place of negotiating the Peace of Westphalia)
- lunch

Thursday, 18 June 2009 (1:30 – 5:30 pm) in Osnabrück

A. Common Frames of Reference as an academic tool and a legal instrument: results and experiences in the field of European Private Law (1:30-3 pm)

1. How to get to a CFR? Methods and organisational issues
(Prof. Christian v. Bar, Osnabrück)
2. Legal and academic functions of a CFR
(Prof. Hans Schulte-Nölke, Osnabrück)

Discussion (Chairman: Prof. Christian Walter, Münster)

Break

B. European perspectives on a Administrative Law CFR (3:30-5:30 pm)

3. The case for a codified European Administrative Procedural Law
(Prof. Oriol Mir Puigpelat, Barcelona)
4. Existing sector-specific codifications and issues for a general codification
(Prof. Giacinto della Cananea, Naples)

Discussion (Chairman: Prof. Christian Walter, Münster)

Optional academic event (6 – 8 pm):

Lecture (in German) by the

Vice-President of the German Federal Constitutional Court

Prof. Dr. Andreas Voßkuhle (Karlsruhe/Freiburg i. Brsg.)

„60 Jahre Grundgesetz – Perspektiven von Verfassungsrechtsprechung und Verfassungsrechtswissenschaft“

hosted by the Osnabrueck Legal Society (Juristische Gesellschaft Osnabrück-Emsland)

dinner (8 pm)

Friday, 19 June 2009 (9 am – 1.30 pm) in Osnabrück

C. National perspectives on costs and benefits of and potential topics for a CFR on European Administrative Procedural Law

5. An English perspective (Prof. Paul Craig, Oxford)
6. A French perspective (Prof. Jean-Bernard Auby, Paris)

Statement by the chairman and discussion (Chairman: Prof. Matthias Ruffert, Jena)

Break

7. A Polish perspective (Prof. Irena Lipowicz, Warszawa)
8. A Dutch perspective (Prof. Boudewijn de Waard, Tilburg)

Discussion (Chairman: Prof. Matthias Ruffert, Jena)

Break

D. Conclusion and outlook

9. Potentials and problems of a CFR on European Administrative Procedural Law: The way forward (Prof. Jens-Peter Schneider, Osnabrück)

Optional social programme (probably covered by an extra fee):

- Friday afternoon: Picasso-Museum?; Münster Town Hall (the catholic place of negotiating the Peace of Westphalia)
- dinner